Ports that jtel requires / uses through VPN on a customer system

jtel should be able to reach the following ports directly through the VPN when on a customer system:

- SSH (22) - For connecting to Linux via SSH shell
- RDP (3389) - For connecting to Windows via Remote Desktop
- MySQL (3306) - For connecting to MySQL Servers via an sql program (mysql free for example)
- http (80 und 8080) - For connecting to websites through http
- https (443) - For connecting to websites through https
- http Management Load-Balancer (7777) For connecting to the haproxy controller through http