

Reports

The system provides pre-defined reports, which give information on agents, groups, individual calls, working time, etc. This function will be enabled by your system manager. This function will be enabled by your reseller.

Further information on this subject can be found in the section Reports.