ODBC Data Sources

Sometimes it is necessary to connect the jtel System (in particular the TEL role) to external ODBC data sources.

This means setting up an ODBC connection in the telephony server.

Setting up an ODBC data source for a foreign MySQL driver is trivial, and follows the same procedure as the installation of the jtel System. The following guides show how to connect to other database types.