

Skills

You can associate skills with agents, which reflect their expertise and qualifications, for example a language, know-how or communication skills. The system tries to distribute calls to agents with applicable skills. These settings can be configured for each service number and also in instances of the network IVR object ACD.

The list of skills is accessed using the function ACD - Skills.