

Conference Statistics

To see the statistics for conferences in the system, choose Conference Server - Conferences in the main menu. The existing conferences in the system will be shown. Use Statistics in the row of the conference you wish to edit to see the details on time, duration and participant count on which the conference was held.

Use Details in any particular row to open a window containing details on the participants and calls to the conference.